Our boutique luxury home delivering individual care for our residents

Comic Relief fun and games

Our residents had a great time on Friday 14th November for Children in Need. The brilliant activities team initiated a competitive game of tissue paper unrolling. A big bar of delicious chocolate was on offer for the winner. Much hilarity ensued and the floor looked like a tissue paper mountain! During the afternoon the brilliant Richard Aust came to entertain us all with his Saxophone.

We also had a group exercise session with Sophie from G-Fitness, she always makes these sessions fun for all who take part.

Austenwood Events

A trip to a local reptile centre offered a close-up look at snakes and other creepy crawlies - an experience not for the faint-hearted!

On National Hug a Bear Day, our resident teddy bear made the rounds, bringing smiles to everyone. There was also a lovely outing to the Ethorpe Hotel with Age Concern Gerrards Cross, where a delicious social lunch was enjoyed.

Christmas Photos and Party time.

On Friday 5th December we have a photographer coming in to take some festive pictures of our residents, families and friends are free to join them for a snap or two if they wish. He will also be present on Saturday 6th December for our annual Christmas Party. The talented Nik Stoter will be coming to sing to us all. Our chefs will provide a delicious buffet and there will be lots of fun and games to be had.
