Our boutique luxury home delivering individual care for our residents

From the Highlands to Handcrafted Snakes A Wild Month at Austenwood!

Residents enjoyed a lively Scottish-themed day this month! The dining room was decked out in flags and balloons, and our chef served a traditional lunch of haggis, neeps, and tatties - a hit with residents and even a few adventurous visitors. In the afternoon, everyone got hands-on making (and eating!) haggis scotch eggs. Adding a playful twist, the activity team helped residents transform donated ties into snakes, using knitting needles to stuff them before adding eyes and decorations. The results were hilarious - and made for some great photo moments!

Pizza & Welsh Rarebit Delights!

Residents rolled up their sleeves this month for fun cooking sessions, creating delicious pizzas and classic Welsh rarebit - smiles all around and not a crumb left behind!

Residents have enjoyed coffee outings to local spots like the E Thorpe Hotel and Jack & Alice, strengthening community connections. Back at home, they spent a lovely afternoon in the courtyard making bird feeders to support local wildlife.
